19:30 Light in Darkness

On this second Sunday in Advent, our readings point us to the kingdom that Christ brings and urge us to prepare for it.

Isaiah 11:1-10 This is a promise of a vigorous successor to David, son of Jesse. His rule will be distinguished by spiritual blessing, which will show in his wisdom, his righteous and equitable government and the profound peace to which it leads. And this peace will extend to all nations. The picture of a world immersed in the knowledge of the Lord is indeed an attractive one.

Psalm 72 The king for whom the psalmist longs will be just and his righteous rule will care for the weak and needy, be done with violence and oppression and bring in enduring prosperity. Sustained by the people's prayers, his universal reign will refresh the earth like showers. It is a time of God's peace. Christians look to Christ, not Solomon, to fulfill this longing.

Romans 15:4-13 Paul sees Jesus as the fulfillment of the hopes of the people of God down the ages. In particular he sees this in the way the gentiles have been ready to embrace Jesus. For him, this is the fulfillment of ancient longing. What is now important is that the different strands in the church unite around Jesus. Is there any less need of such a message of hope today?

Matthew 3:1-12 John the Baptist came preaching repentance. John's call is demanding, his preaching full of urgency. It is high time for us to get moving, for anyone who does not play their part may be consigned to the fire, like so much rubbish. The key to the time of peace that Jesus will bring is repentance, turning back o God.

Pointers for prayer

- Righteousness begins with care for the weak and rejection of oppression
- God intends his peace to be for all people, not just a few
- It is Jesus' acceptance of all people that enables us to unite around him
- Our attempts to shut others out of the kingdom call for repentance
- May the earth be filled with the glory of God, as the waters cover the sea.

Light In Darkness is a service that acknowledges that the holiday season is not easy for many of us. It may remind us of someone we have lost, reopen wounds of the past, or intensify feelings of loneliness and isolation. It provides an opportunity to bring our sadness to God as the One who deeply and compassionately understands our pain. Regardless of the difficulties that threaten to overshadow your joy this season, you are welcome to come and join us in this safe, quiet service. The service is on Wednesday 7 December at 19:30.

'Christmas Light: They Sang' is a contemporary Carol Service led by the 6pm congregation to which all are welcome. The service is on Sunday 11 December at 18:00. It will be based around the four songs in Luke's account of the Nativity and infancy of Jesus, based on the course 'They Sang' by Amy Scott Robinson, and will include Christmas songs and carols, old and new.

Autumn Garden Session This sunday, after the morning service (+/-12:15), you can join the garden team to weed, plant, clean, admire, pot up ... in other words to prepare the garden for winter and next spring. Contact manodoye@gmail.com if you need more info.

Update on our 2022 'Have a Heart' campaign

Many thanks to all who have contributed so far to this year's 'Have a Heart' campaign for Les Cailloux. This Sunday, 4 December, is your last chance to drop off your gift in the green sack that will be at the back of the church after each service so that we can ensure the presents are delivered in time for St Nicolas on 6 December. If you haven't managed to contribute yet but would like to support the cause, there is still time to make a bank transfer to the following account: BE67 1030 7048 2187 with 'Have a Heart 2022' as a reference. The campaign has also been added to Holy Trinity's Donation Station, an easy way to make contactless donations. If you have any difficulty with delivery of your gift to the church, please contact Geraldine Barry (Geraldine.barry@ec.europa.eu) to arrange an alternative solution.

Help with church website Do you have experience with website support? Holy Trinity is looking for a volunteer to help with the church website. Please email annie.bolger@holytrinity.be to learn more.

Reducing our Carbon footprint Brussels Region is bringing in legislation to reduce waste from catering activities. For more info please read their brochure which is also pinned in church lobby. This means that we will need to serve drinks in reusable cups from 1st January 2023. You can help by bringing your own 'keep-cup' to church each week – this will mean less washing up for the coffee team! To know more, please speak to our churchwardens Jane and Philippa or Zélie of the Environment Committee.

Ministries Fayre The new date will be in January, the 29th.

The latest edition of the magazine European Anglicans is available here.

Can you join a Team? ... We need Service hosts, Coffee team and Crèche helpers for the 10:30 service. If you would like to volunteer for these, and other church activities, feel welcome to register here.
