12:30 Holy Communion

Annie Bolger

Jeremiah 32:1-3a, 6-15 The nation is under imminent threat. Jeremiah has been shut up as a threat to royal policy. Yet the word of prophecy is something quite unexpected. By going through all the formalities, paying the price and taking formal possession of a new field, Jeremiah shows his trust that God will continue to protect his people in the land he has given them.

Psalms 91:1-6, 14-16 There is here a profound expression of trust in God's care for his faithful people, of its protection of those who love him, who know his name and call upon it. In the background may be a powerful threat. Then we may read these words as an exhortation to trust in the most unpromising circumstances. To read it literally would be naïve – Jesus himself rejected such a reading of verses 11-12.

1 Timothy 6:6-19 The Christian is warned against the love of money, which can lead to temptation and ruin and distracts people from the faith. Far better to focus on being content with enough and on being godly. Riches are uncertain friends, while a life of faith is reflected in doing good and receives the promise of true riches in the eternal life that we saw in Jesus.

Luke 16:19-end The rich man is so complacent in his wealth that he does not even notice the poor man at his gate, nor does he think on the opportunities that his wealth offers. But after death the roles are reversed. Now his wealth cannot help him and it is too late to repent. Should he have known better? The law and the prophets challenge the wealthy. We are still better informed, for we know of one who came back from the dead. His warnings against trusting wealth could hardly be clearer.

Pointers for prayer

- God calls me to evaluate my life: where do I place my trust? If I lay my values before God, he will help me see more clearly;
- Pray that we may be content with enough, and to be able to use what God gives us in his service;
- We know what type of people God is most concerned for. Pray for them.

Welcome to Holy Trinity!

It remains important that all of us feel able to come to church in person if we wish and feel safe and secure in doing so. Services continue to be online as before. There is no need to register to attend services. Anyone may wear a mask if they wish. There is designated seating for those who wish to wear masks and sit socially distanced.

- Holy Communion: We may share the Peace physically, but please be sensitive to those who may prefer not to. Simply ask your neighbour what they are comfortable with! We are now able to receive wine if we are comfortable doing so. More details will be given at services.

Please feel free to ask questions about any of these arrangements. We pray that God will bless and protect us as we move into this new stage of our community's life.

At this morning's 10:30 service we will be baptising Steffan Singh, the second son of Raj and Janice Weatherly-Singh. We welcome him into our church family!

One of my passions is Church as family. The Ministry Fayre is an opportunity for us all to find out what happens in our church and see where we might fit. It is thus not an easy decision for me to take to postpone Sunday's Ministry Fayre. But I have COVID. Jane Brown

Creationtide from 4 September - 4 October Holy Trinity will be observing Creationtide along with churches around the world. An outline of 10:30 services and activities to look forward to:

- 2 October - All Age Worship and Harvest Festival.

The Diocesan Caring for Creation working group (which includes 3 HTB members) has worked with the Diocesan Communications team to produce a short video for Creationtide. You can find it here.

Harvest at Holy Trinity - 2 October Here are two ways to express gratitude and generosity this Harvest!

• Harvest Sunday is 2 October. Food donations will be gratefully received at every service on Harvest. Fresh vegetables (no fruit, please) will be donated to the Community Kitchen. The Community Kitchen especially requests fresh red peppers, courgettes, aubergine, onions, potatoes, carrots, etc. Non-perishable foods, dry/tinned items, etc, will be shared with the Protestant Social Centre.

• Consider giving your time! The Community Kitchen needs help to transform these fresh foods into nourishing meals. To volunteer, email community.kitchen@holytrinity.be.

The Treasurer wishes to thank the congregation for the progress that is being made to move from donations by coins to electronic methods such as Payconiq and Givt. A recent analysis has shown that receipts using these new methods are almost equal to the amounts that we receive in coins. This is welcome progress!

Can you join a Team? ... We need Service hosts, Coffee team and Crèche helpers for the 10:30 service. If you would like to volunteer for these, and other church activities, feel welcome to register here.

Following up from the 'Living with Loss' that was a joint interactive talk facilitated by Sonja Stark of St. Paul's Tervuren and Rose Omondi of HTB, we would like to offer a 6-week bereavement support group for those who have recently lost loved ones and are going through a period of grief. We would limit this to a small group of a maximum of 10 and expect them to commit to all the six sessions. We plan to have:

- the first meeting 'in person' on Saturday 8 October from 10 - 12 at Holy Trinity Church House,
- then have online sessions once a week for five other weeks on Oct 12, Oct 19, Oct 26; Nov 9, Nov 16 all from 20:00 to 21:15.
- We could then offer a final in-person meeting on Saturday 19th November at the Holy Trinity church house from 10-12 for a chance to wish each other well and see each other in person once again.

For those who would like to be part of this support group, please sign up here or send an email to Rose Omondi at counsellor@holyltrinity.be. We would appreciate a short one or two sentences on why you would like to join the support group so we can have an idea of who is joining and what we need to focus on. The numbers will be limited, so please do sign up as soon as possible. If you have any questions or need further explanation of what to expect from the support group, please do email Rose at the above email address.

Starting from October, HTB and Christian Climate Action will be offering a 'Deep Waters' course. This is an 8-week programme which provides a faith-based framework for exploring issues of anxiety, fear and grief linked to the climate and environmental crisis. Deep Waters supports reflection and conversation with others trying to make sense of climate grief and eco-anxiety through eyes of faith. The journey takes us through themes including lament, truth, wisdom, mortality and justice, in pursuit of renewed hope. The course will run on Tuesday evenings from 4th October, with a mix of 'live' meetings (at HTB) and online sessions. Enquiries and sign-ups - contact Annie (annie.bolger@holyltrinity.be) or Mags (mags.bird@gmail.com).

Job wanted Sineen, a new member of our HTB community is a qualified Occupational Therapist working with children with severe and various developmental disabilities.
